

Terms and conditions | Cheng Hsin Holland Camp 2023

For 2023 we do not expect any travel restrictions or measures related to the Covid pandemic. But if we need to cancel any or all of workshops (Art of Effortless Power, Boxing and CSW) because of Covid measures or travel restrictions in the Netherlands you will receive a complete refund of your deposits and other payments. And if you need to cancel your participation because of Covid measures or travel restrictions in your country, you will also receive a complete refund of your deposits and other payments.

Cancellation terms

- Cancelling any of the workshops before 15 May means that 10% of the workshop costs will not be refunded.
- Cancelling any of the workshops after 15 May means that 40% of the workshop costs will not be refunded.
- Cancelling any of the workshops within two weeks prior to the start of the workshop means the whole amount (workshop and accommodation costs) will not be refunded.

Proceedings towards the Cheng Hsin Holland Camp 2023

- First sign up by sending in this registration form. Also make sure to transfer the required workshop deposits. If you do so before 15 March you can claim your Early Bird discount!
- Note: the remaining payment for the CSW needs to be paid in cash on arrival!
- All other remaining payments for accommodation and the martial workshops must be transferred in full by 15 April 2023.
- If you sign up after 15 April make full payments for accommodation and workshops by transfer (but bring remaining payment for CSW in cash!).
- In April you will receive a preparation letter with general information on lodging, route description, workshop conditions and other requirements.

If you have any questions regarding these terms please contact Epi van de Pol at admin@epitaijiquan.nl.
